GET INVOLVED

The 100 Million campaign is the world's largest youth mobilization campaign ensuring that all young people are free, safe and educated.

WHY

152 million children are engaged in child labor.

165 million children continue to live in areas with high intensity conflicts.

650 million children face poverty in education, health, and quality of living.

With the largest population of young people the world has ever seen, it is time to follow youth leadership.

TAKE ACTION

In the U.S., children as young as 12 can legally work in tobacco fields. We must end child labor in U.S. tobacco.

Show the film, The Price of Free, a look at Nobel Peace Laureate Kailash Satyarthi's efforts to free every child from slavery, at your school or community.

Take the pledge to ensure every child is free, safe, and educated at 100million.org.
